As the Baptist Church Goes, There Goes America: A Letter to the Baptist Church (Paperback)

By MR Timothy Lane Trull

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The largest protection that America has ever known is missing. The men and women who used to take care of our children, pray for our sons and daughters at war, and consistently attend church and chapel services, are missing because the world wants them elsewhere. We would have so much more protection as a nation from God if they would re-focus their energy on building Godly children and on building the church. The world over the last century has demanded that it is right for men to marry men, and men to dress like women and even go into women s bathrooms dressed like transvestites. The next step will be men to marry animals or children. It is a slippery slope, and we are sliding as we have lost our focus and fear of God and his tenants. The government and society would have a man that works make the same amount of money that a drug user on welfare makes, thus defeating the need for innovation and entrepreneurship. A criminal who steals and attacks a Police Officer...
