Tori has spent the better part of her adult life following in her deceased father's footsteps and running herself into the ground, just as he did - all work, no play. She has brought the family business into the twenty first century at the expense of her love life. That all changes, when her mother pulls rank and sets up an elaborate hoax to get Tori out of the city and away from work. She spares no expense in seeing her daughter off to Florida for a month long vacation that is well overdue. She insures her daughter will remain in Florida with meticulous calculations that only a mother could do. Tori hates the very thought of her mother as she enters into her jail sentence. She wants nothing more than to return to her comfort zone with meetings, schedules, and quotas to meet. It's a crucial time for the company with the merger taking place within days of her mother's stunt. But, something changes when Tori starts to let her guard down around a charming native, Caleb. Does she find the meaning of true love? Or does it just become a fantasy?.
