Wanderings and Musings of a Missouri Farm Girl

By Anna Martin

AKA:yoLa. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 210 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.2in. x 0.7in. Annalou Macks formative years were spent on a farm in North Missouri during the Great Depression. She didnt know how poor her family was because life was the same for everyone around them. Her elementary education was received in one-room country schools common during that era. Anna completed college after marriage and the birth of three children in rapid succession. Subsequently she taught high school Social Studies in the tiny high school her children attended. Continuing her education, the author received a Masters degree in Social Studies, a Specialist in Guidance and Counseling and a Doctorate in Higher Education. Rather than teach college for which she was qualified, the author took a decidedly different life path that included travel and service work. This included two stints in the Peace Corps-one in Liberia, West Africa and the other in Ukraine, in Eastern Europe. Between the tours overseas, she and her husband lived in their travel trailer while traveling the U. S. for several years before they settled in Yuma, Arizona where Anna directed an adult literacy program. Academic writing was a necessity during her college days, but only...
