First it is an attempt to describe in a concise and readable form the educational difficulties on account of which University College was founded, and to show how from this beginning the University of London, the Hospital and the School of Advanced Medical Studies came into existence. These matters, which were keenly exciting only eighty years ago, are now rapidly passing into oblivion and may well soon be completely forgotten. Secondly it is thought that this short History of our School may interest many who did not hear it, and to whose notice there seems no other method of bringing it. It appears best to preserve the text almost exactly as it was delivered and to add in notes a number of facts upon which some of...
