Jones, of Trelech, Carmarthenshire Whatever is calculated to advance the cause of Christ, to serve our day and generation, especially the generations yet unborn, it ought to be our great concern to promote and preserve. Religious biography is in a high degree adapted to do this. Hence it is the Scriptures present to our view, so great a cloud of witnesses, that by the powerful attraction of their example, sinners might be drawn to choose the same good way, and saints stimulated, to lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset them, and run with patience the race that is set before them, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of their faith. The written lives of holy and useful men, in successive ages of the church, and the varied circumstances of persecution, and peace - of suffering, and enjoyment, have been instrumental in a great degree, in promoting the interest of...
