Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Loyola University Magazine, Vol. 18: November, 1920 Again, to Father Daly, S. J., he declares: I don t want in any way to make money out of my religion, to seem to be a professional Catholic. I have no real message to Catholics, I have Catholicism s message to modern pagans. But though he believed his message was for the modern pagan, he appeals with greater intensity to Catholic hearts, who better understand the spirit of Christian joy and hope that dominates even the saddest of his songs. There are no emotions so noble, as those to which devout souls are admitted in communion with their Maker. When to those moods the true poetic gift is added the best that poetry can do reveals itself in words. To Joyce Kilmer was given the great gift and daily communion with His Maker and from them resulted his songs breathing hope and love. Human life in its varied phases was the theme of most of his poems; yet he viewed life as on the threshold of...
