Hester, discovered, pacing hack and forth, looking anxiously and nervously in all directions. Hester. Why doesn t she come? She said she would be sure to be here early, and it seems as though I have been waiting for hours already. But I suppose I haven t. [Pause, still walking hack and forth uneasily] Dear me! how my heart beats! It s the hardest work in the world to be really downright wicked! I m almost tempted to back out even now! If it wasn t that Kate is always winning all the honors of the class, I d run and dig up her old essay this very minute, and clear my skirts of the whole deal before it is too late! But - [Sets teeth firmly together] I won t! I just won t! If it wasn t for her, I d win at least Honorable Mention now and then, and I m going to,...
